Interests

- Speech and Language. As a result, I am pursuing a career as a speech language pathologist. I am fascinated how humans are able to communicate to one another.
- American Sign Language. I find manual languages just as interesting as spoken language and I have taken multiple classes inside and out of Penn State University to pursue this interest.
- THON. I love being able to make a difference in the life of a child.

Skills and Abilities

- Goal Driven. I set my standards very high in order to reach my goals. As result I have maintained a 4.0 GPA over the past four semesters at Penn State University.
- Time Management. I have learned how to efficiently manage all my time and am able to accomplish a lot in a small amount of time.
- Prompt. I am very fast in responses to emails or other forms of contact and I do not procrastinate.
- Self-Motivated. I am able to drive myself personally towards my own goals without further encouragement.
